

Planning for your future

Sydney Local Health District would like to hear from you about your health needs and health care services for the community.

Come along to a community consultation session as we draft a new Strategic Plan.

Sydney Local Health District covers the centre and inner west of Sydney and is responsible for Royal Prince Alfred, Concord, Canterbury, Balmain and Sydney Dental Hospitals. We provide community health services linked with primary care providers to those in Canada Bay, Burwood, Strathfield, Inner West and parts of the Canterbury-Bankstown Council and City of Sydney local government areas.
