

Name of service/Department	Maxillofacial Prosthetics Unit
Brief description of service/department	Maxillofacial prosthetics (or prosthesis) unit's role is to replace parts of the mouth or face lost due to disease, injury or malformation with prosthetics. Prosthetics are artificial replacements for a missing part of the body normally made of such as plastic, rubber or metal. As this is a complex process, a full assessment is needed before treatment can start, discussing the options available. For a prosthetic to be fitted properly it may take many appointments to get it right.