

Terms of Reference

NAME	ANZ Peritoneal Malignancy Collaboration (ANZ PMC)
GOAL	To improve the outcomes of patients with peritoneal malignancy
OBJECTIVES	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Facilitate participation in the development, conduct, evaluation and reporting of multi-site clinical trials and research collaborations focused on the treatment of peritoneal malignancy. 2. Promote the use of clinical trials in evaluating new treatments and management approaches for peritoneal malignancy. 3. Contribute to the translation of clinical trials and research findings into clinical practice. 4. Develop a platform for providing comprehensive information relating to treatment options and clinical evidence for patients and their families.
MEMBERS	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Brendan Moran: Senior Peritonectomy Advisor UK (Co-Chair) • Michael Solomon: RPA Advanced GI Surgical Program Director (Co-Chair) • Nick Lutton: Princess Alexandra (Brisbane) representative • David Morris: St George (Sydney) representative • Christopher Young: Royal Prince Alfred (Sydney) representative • Alexander Heriot: Peter MacCallum (Melbourne) representative • Peter Hewett: The Queen Elizabeth (Adelaide) representative • Paul Moroz: Joondalup Health Campus (Perth) representative • Jasen Ly: Waikato (Hamilton NZ) representative • Ian Bissett: Auckland (Auckland NZ) representative • Winston Liauw: Medical Oncology representative • Rhonda Farrell: Gynaecological Oncology representative • Marcelo Nascimento: Gynaecological Oncology representative • Helen Kennedy: Nursing representative • Sarah O'Shannassy: Nursing representative • Rob Ramsay: Laboratory Research representative • Jan Young: Clinical Research representative • Nabila Ansari: Health Services Research representative • Kate McBride: Administration representative
CHAIRPERSON	Professor Brendan Moran Professor Michael Solomon
SECRETARIAT	Executive Director, Institute of Academic Surgery
QUORUM	50% of members
MEETING FREQUENCY	Quarterly
REVIEW	Annual